Discover your new winter passion. Information is at Wintertrails.org.

WHO: Winter Trails is organized by SnowSports Industries America (SIA), the national non-profit member-owned trade association that represents suppliers of consumer snow sports products with constituents in the retail, rep and resort communities. It is supported by the Cross Country Ski Areas Association, the American Hiking Society and sponsoring snow sports companies.

WHERE: More than 80 locations throughout the U.S. Details are updated on Wintertrails.org.

WHEN: Most events take place on January 12, 2013. Some are scheduled on alternate dates. The Estes Park, Colorado event is January 19, 2013. Details are updated on Wintertrails.org.

WHY: Snowshoeing and cross country skiing are two excellent winter outdoor activities that can be enjoyed by individuals, groups of friends and family members. They are affordable, easy to learn and they provide moderate to vigorous exercise, depending on an individual's effort. With obesity rates in the U.S. at an all time high, Winter Trails can introduce active and not so active children and adults to sports that provide winter outdoor recreation. In 2011, more than 11,250 people participated in Winter Trails events.

SPONSORS: Alpina, Fischer Skis, Atlas Snowshoes, Crescent Moon Snowshoes, Cross Country Skier Magazine, Madshus Skis, Mountain Safety Research (MSR), Salomon, Rossignol, SkiTrax Magazine, Snowshoe Magazine, Swix, Tubbs, Whitewoods and XCSkiresorts.com.
